Failure to return this form may result in the owners of your unit now being considered in quorum calculations at meeting and may disentitle the owners from voting at owner's meetings. In addition failure to return this form may disentitle the owners from being given notice of:

- Any lawsuit started by the condominium (other than a Small Claims Court Action)
- Any expropriation relating to the condominium property
- Any planning act applications. This would include notices of minor variances, severances, Official Plan amendments or rezoning with respect to neighbouring lands.
- Any owners' or directors meeting.
